

'MONK' ATE MATCHES AND NOW REGRETS IT, SO DOES STEVEN

Visitor Gives Baldy Tempting
Box of Them—Doctor and Judge Busy.

"Old Baldy," the prize animal in the Bronx Zoo, ate peanuts till he got tired yesterday, so when he was handed a perfectly good box of matches he haled it as a change and a luxury and promptly bit into it.

Steven Sependink, twenty-seven years old, who says he lives at No. 12 East Thirty-third street, regrets that Baldy ate the matches almost as much as Baldy does, for Steven now languishes in a cell as the donor of the box.

It is against the regulations of the Zoo for visitors to feed the animals, although almost everybody does it, and the keepers often wink at it. But recently, when an epidemic of stomach trouble broke out in the monkey house, Curator Raymond L. Dittmars and his veterinary, Dr. W. Reed Blair, resolved to see that the rule should be rigidly enforced.

Ferdinand Engelholm, one of the keepers in charge of the larger apes, was standing not far from Old Baldy's cage, watching the monkey go through his usual series of stunts for the amusement of the crowd of onlookers.

This was exactly the moment in the proceedings that Keeper Engelholm was watching for. There was a gurgle of laughter from the juvenile portion of the audience, and appreciative comment from older ones. But only one man stepped forward with outstretched hand. That was Sependink, and before Engelholm could get to him he had handed the monkey a box of matches. Engelholm grabbed the man and shouted for a policeman, but by the time Patrolman Bolton of the Bronx Park station had rushed in, old Baldy had already consumed one-half of the box and was starting in on the remainder.

Engelholm snatched the matches from the monkey and promptly telephoned for Dr. Blair, who administered medicines and ordered Baldy to bed.

In the meantime Patrolman Bolton had taken his prisoner to the station, where he was searched, with the result that a pair of brass knuckles were found on him. When he was arraigned in Morrisania Police Court before Magistrate Breen to-day the Magistrate held him without bail on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. In addition to fining him $10 for disorderly conduct, the same constituting the feeding of the matches to Old Baldy.

A GUTENBERG BIBLE IN WIDENER COLLECTION.

PHILADELPHIA, June 24.—It is announced here that Harry Eldin Widener, who perished with his father, George D. Widener, on the Titanic, purchased the Hoe copy of the Gutenberg Bible on paper shortly before his tragic death. The rare volume was sold to the Philadelphia collector by Bernard Quaritch of London.

The volume is to become a conspicuous feature of Mr. Widener's collection, which has been given to Harvard, and which will be housed in an annex to the Harvard Library to be built by P. A. B. Widener as a memorial to his grandson.

MOLTKE BACK AT KIEL.

Kaiser's Big Warship Was Recently Here on Visit.

KIEL, Germany, June 24.—The German battleship cruiser Moltke, with Admiral von Rebeur-Paschwitz on board, arrived here to-day from New York on her return from the visit paid to Hampton Roads and New York in company with the cruisers Stettin and Bremen.

AMERICANS HELD UP BY CUBAN REBELS, ROBBED OF $3,500

Seventeen Faced Guns of Bandits, Who Demanded Ransom for Their Release.

EL PASO, Tex., June 24.—Seventeen Americans in Velarde, fifty miles west of Torreon, Mex., and about three hundred miles south of the international border, recently were held up against a barn while a half dozen drink-crazed Mexican rebels brandished guns in their faces and threatened summary execution unless $1,000,000 ransom was forthcoming.

FRECKLES

New Drug That Quickly Removes These Homely Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as a new drug, othine—double strength—has been discovered that positively removes these homely spots. Simply get one ounce of othine—double strength—from Riker-Hegeman Drug Stores and apply a little of it at night, and in the morning you will see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful, clear complexion. Be sure to ask for the double strength othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

coming. The rebels halted their threats when $500 in gold was paid them. The story was told by a party of witnesses who arrived here today.

Americans, they said, had fed of the consequences of a revelation of their plight through official channels, and only with the routing of rebel columns under Gen. Campa and Argumedeo after nearly two months of depredations, had the facts begun to come to light.

At Velarde, forty volunteers captured by Gen. Campa were executed in small squads. Rebel infantrymen, with one another for the privilege of conducting the executions. One of the pitiable sights was the killing of a federal volunteer about sixty-five years old by a rebel soldier hardly out of his teens.

A man arriving here to-day told of finding near Torreon seven bodies horribly disfigured and mutilated. One of them was a woman. This act is charged to the Federal forces.

KILLED BY TUNNEL CAVE-IN.

Monah Bonadadean, thirty years old, of No. 57 Tenth avenue, was killed by a cave-in in the Aqueduct tunnel at shaft No. 17, Forty-second street and Sixth avenue, early to-day. He was working some little distance from the shaft when, without warning, a portion of the roof fell in and a large rock struck him on the head.

The Wanamaker Cycle of Six Great Sales of Men's Summer Suits

is growing, like a snowball, as it goes. Beginning with Six Sales, others are forcing their way in by sheer merit of values. Last week one of our regular tailors insisted upon being allowed to share in the movement and got 300 suits here just in time to join the Friday and Saturday event. Two other propositions are now under consideration. All of which is good, for men are coming in great numbers to share in the benefits of this unusual merchandise movement.

Tomorrow We Launch

No. 4—Embracing

423 Men's Summer Suits

of $30 to $40 Grade

To Sell for $23.50

103 Suits are $30 Grade 94 Suits are $35 Grade
65 Suits are $32 Grade 68 Suits are $38 Grade
93 Suits are $40 Grade

There will be no finer clothes in this or any other special-price movement this season, for the simple reason that no finer clothes are made.

Suits of fancy and gray serges, worsteds of hard and soft finish and summer flannels—of precisely the patterns that have figured prominently in our own and other carefully selected stocks of summer suits this season.

Hand-tailored, throughout.

We have graded them according to the Wanamaker standards. Suits listed here at $40 would be sold in many stores, if they carried clothes of this quality, at $45 and $48.

Sizes 34 to 46, regular, long and stout.

Good Shirt News!

More of Those Luxurious Pure Silk Shirts for Men
$6 and $7.50 Grades at $3.50.

These shirts are the result of a carefully planned and daring coup in which we co-operated with a shirtmaker who likes to do big things.

The shirts are coming to us as fast as he can turn them out.

Fifty or more varieties of colored and self stripes in staple pure silk shirtings which any silk man will sell you retail regularly at $1.50 a yard. Three and a half yards to the shirt—a fair price for the making—and you see why we speak of the deal as a coup.

We have already sold an enormous number of fine silk shirts this season.

But judging by the pace at which the last of these $3.50 shirts went out, New York men will still be calling for more after all are sold.

Wash them with care, and no shirts will serve you better. Pure silk, $3.50.

Burlington Arcade floor, New Building.

A Great Capture of Women's Shoes

$3.50 Black Patent Leather Pumps for $2.40

Newly made shoes. Perfect in every way. Complete in size range.

Patent leather pumps this Spring are the most popular of all shoes. Women can wear them with linen suits or dresses, with chic little silk suits or dresses, with tailored cloth suits, with lingerie frocks.

No wonder our supply of patent leather pumps ran low.

When we went into the market to replenish it we ran across this Queen Quality opportunity—

More Than 4,000 Pairs, at $1.10 Less Than Their Price at the Regular Queen Quality Stores

All are exactly alike, daintily shaped and finished, with comfortable short vamps, Cuban heels, neat tailored bows. Sizes 2 1/4 to 8. AA to E widths. Subway floor, Old Building.

1,000 White Wash Skirts, $1.25 & $1.50

Previous Shipments Sold as Quickly as We Could Get Them at $2 and $2.50

Fresh, crisp, unhandled, just new from the manufacturer—the most desirable white rep, pique and cotton corduroy wash skirts.

All season it has been impossible to keep up with the demand. Manufacturer has been rushed—we never could get more than three or four dozen skirts at a time.

Then all in a day the end came—his orders stopped. They could not have kept on much longer, or he would have put every other skirt maker out of business.

So this small overquantity comes to you at about usual wholesale prices.

Seven styles—the new draped effects, double skirt effects, the new belted and high girle tops, all beautifully draped and with fine pearl buttons. Some skirts are perfectly plain for easy laundering. All are modeled on excellent lines.

Subway floor, Old Building.

42 Styles New Silk Petticoats $1.95, instead of $3 to $5

Soft messaline and silk jersey top skirts that it will be wise to choose now for next winter, when prices will be twice or three times as high.

Plain or changeable taffetas that are so very popular now. Besides crepe de chine and China silk—cool and almost never found below the $5 mark.

Forty-two different styles, including every imaginable sort of graceful flounces, double or single, pleated or lace-edged, spotted or piped with color, pointed or straight—many inspired by Paris.

Plenty of white, cerise, emerald, brown, light and dark colors and a few black. All lengths.

Subway floor, Old Building.

$2 White Voile Shirtwaists, $1

Three tables full on the Subway floor of attractive voile and lawn shirtwaists at $1—many made to sell at $2. Different yokes of imitation Irish, some with cluny and all sorts of narrow lace insertions. Mostly with high collars and some have long frilled sleeves.

Fresh shipments, too, of regular quality $1 waists in pretty and effective styles, lawn with embroidery or lace.

Subway floor, Old Building.
